ANOTHER SHAW BABY A WINNER

Stanley Shaw, Aged 2 Years, Wins Boys' Prize, Following the Example of His Younger Sister — Baby Show Results

Boys—2 to 3 Years
Stanley Sutton Shaw of Longview Place, first prize.
Louis Lucien Fribourg, of 421 East Garfield, second prize.

Girls—2 to 3 Years
Lois Charlotte Wassmann, 915 East Roosevelt, first prize.
Evelyn Shirley Callahan, 714 North Third street, second prize.

Prize-winners ran prominently in the Shaw family, for in yesterday's competition at the baby show Stanley Shaw, brother of one of the girl babies who won in the second division, took first prize.

Ten kiddos went up against the rigorous investigation of the committee of doctors yesterday, proving, as the managers, Miss Gustin, maintains, that younger children, when showing their younger children, the first day of the show, when the class was limited to less than a year, brought forth twenty contestants.

The committee of doctors who did the measuring and weighing yesterday consisted of Drs. Brockway, Godfrey, Couch and Thayer.

The youngsters in the 2 to 4-year-old class will be submitted today.

SCHOOL ELECTIONS TO BE HELD TODAY

BAR EXAMINATION—The regular semi-annual bar examination will be held April 7 and 8 at the statehouse. All applicants must file their applications before the date set for the examination.

FOR FLUE FIRE—The fire department was called to 522 South Central avenue, the home of James Riley, at 8:40 yesterday morning, where a defective flue had caught fire threatening the building. The blaze was quickly extinguished with little damage.

IOWA VISITORS—Judge S. M. Weaver of the superior court of Iowa whose home is at Iowa Falls, has been joined here by his wife and daughter. They are the guests of Arthur T. Esqate, assistant cashier of the Valley bank.

AT SCHOOL OF MUSIC—The regular Saturday afternoon recital at the Arizona School of Music this week will be given by the young pupils of the piano and violin departments. These programs start at 3:30 o'clock and are open to the public without charge.

K. P. THANKSGIVING—Peerless Lodge No. 1, K. of P., will celebrate religious exercises at the Second Baptist church, corner of Fifth and Jefferson streets, Sunday, March 28th, at 2 o'clock p. m. Friends and visitors are welcome. G. P. White will be master of ceremonies and Rev. J. B. Bell, orator.

OFF TO SANTA CRUZ—Chairman Charles R. Howe of the state tax commission left last night for Santa Cruz and Cochise counties where he will advise with the county assessors and attend to other matters that come before the commission. Commissioners Campbell and Zander are already in the southern part of the state.

ORANGE TREES AT STATEHOUSE—Custodian Keene of the state house grounds had a force of men at work yesterday setting out a number of orange trees across the front of the building. By massing foliage in front of the building it is stated the sharp lines of the facade will be broken, and the appearance greatly improved. Shrubs are being planted in the intervals between the trees.

EXCITING RUNAWAY—A team attached to a heavy wagon became frightened on West Adams street yesterday morning and became beyond the control of the driver. The horses ran east on Adams street and when Third avenue had been reached the neck yoke became detached. This resulted in one of the horses being thrown to the pavement, bringing down the other animal. The driver was thrown about twenty feet but landed upon his feet. Before the horses regained their feet the driver was at their heads.

LOOP PETITIONS FILED—Amended petitions for the extension of the Monroe street loop were filed with the corporation commission yesterday. The petitions which have been liberally signed, ask that the commission order the loop extended east to Fourth street, and pray for the construction of a line on Fourth connecting with the Indian school and Glendale lines at Third and Roosevelt. Arguments for the proposed arrangements and the abandonment of the First street line and three blocks of track on both Pierce and Roosevelt streets are presented in the petitions.

NO GOOD, ANYWAY
"What do you think of the President's speech?"
"I don't like it."
"Have you read it?"
"No. When I disagree with a man's politics I don't have to read his speeches to know I don't like em."
—Washington Star.

MESA HIGH WINS ANNUAL NORMAL STUDENT CONTEST

Glendale Takes Second Place in Declamatory Contest in Which Valley School Compete—Big Crowd Hears Young People—Excellent Music Feature

(Special to The Republican)
TEMPE, March 26—Mesa high school won the annual declamatory contest conducted by the Tempe Normal student, Miss Leola McElwain of the Gem City school being awarded the gold medal on her presentation of a selection from "Ingomar." Miss Lucile Ritter representing the Glendale high won the silver medal, with her rendition of "Mamma's Story of Little Red Riding-hood" in child dialect.

The contest was full of interest and spirited rivalry throughout and contestants for the four high schools were given enthusiastic welcomes by their supporters. Willard Detschler representing Phoenix Union High School won much commendation for his declamation on "A Plea for Cuba," and Tempe's representative Ada Tanner gave "The Swan Song" in an effective manner. The judges were C. M. Stott, G. M. Dance and Mrs. S. T. Couderc.

A feature of the program was the vocal solo by Prof. Beckwith and the piano solo by Miss Harrington. The music was excellent and the entire program was greatly appreciated by an enthusiastic audience. Prof. Felton presided. Last year's contest was won by Phoenix high.

SCHOOL ELECTIONS TO BE HELD TODAY

The Polling Places and Candidates for Both Boards

This is the day of the school elections. The candidates have already been announced and each of them has a corps of earnest workers. Greater interest is being taken in the elections than in any previous one. The candidates for the high school board are Mrs. E. H. Abbott, A. A. Betts, (whose name was unintentionally omitted from the list of candidates yesterday morning) and B. W. Getsinger. J. M. Shott had been announced as a candidate of the Phoenix Trades Council but yesterday Mr. Shott stated that he would withdraw in favor of Mr. Getsinger.

The candidates for the high school board from the district outside of Phoenix are Lin B. Orme and R. N. Moorehead. The latter has been put forward by the Phoenix Trades Council. The election for membership of the high school board will be held at the high school buildings.

There are only two candidates for the board of trustees of the Phoenix Union High School and Dr. L. D. Dameron, for re-election. The polling place for the grade school election will be at the Central school building. The polls at both elections will be opened at nine o'clock. There is an indication that there will be a heavy vote.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR TO GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

Cards, dancing and an evening of entertainment will be offered by members of the Knights Templar of Phoenix, Comandery, No. 3, next Wednesday. Neatly engraved invitations have been sent out to all Masons and their ladies.

The affair will be held at the Woman's club-rooms Wednesday night. Sir Knights will honor the occasion by appearing in full uniform.
